

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement (the “Agreement”) is entered into on 21 September 2026 between Example Technologies SARL (the “Employer”) and Alex Martin (the “Employee”).

1. Position and Duties

1.1 The Employer appoints the Employee as Junior Software Engineer, and the Employee accepts the position under the terms of this Agreement.

1.2 The Employee shall perform software development, testing, documentation, maintenance, and other reasonable duties related to the position.

1.3 The Employee shall carry out assigned duties with reasonable care and shall comply with applicable workplace policies and procedures.

2. Place of Work

2.1 The Employee's normal place of work shall be the Employer's office in Tunis, Tunisia.

2.2 The Employer may occasionally require the Employee to work remotely or at another reasonable location, subject to operational requirements.

3. Commencement and Term

3.1 Employment shall commence on 1 October 2026.

3.2 This Agreement is for an indefinite term unless terminated in accordance with this Agreement and applicable law.

3.3 The first three months shall constitute a probationary period, subject to applicable legal requirements.

4. Working Hours

4.1 The Employee's normal working schedule shall be 40 hours per week, normally Monday through Friday.

4.2 Working hours may be adjusted when reasonably required by the Employer, subject to applicable working-time rules.

4.3 Any overtime shall be handled in accordance with applicable law and the Employer's policies.

5. Compensation

5.1 The Employee shall receive a gross monthly salary of 2,800 TND, payable monthly in accordance with the Employer's normal payroll schedule.

5.2 Any legally required deductions, taxes, or social-security contributions shall be withheld from the Employee's compensation.

5.3 The Employee may be eligible for discretionary bonuses or other benefits announced by the Employer from time to time.

6. Leave and Holidays

6.1 The Employee shall be entitled to annual leave, public holidays, and other statutory leave in accordance with applicable law and the Employer's policies.

6.2 Requests for planned leave should normally be submitted in advance and are subject to reasonable operational requirements.

7. Confidentiality

7.1 The Employee shall keep confidential all non-public information concerning the Employer, its clients, suppliers, products, systems, finances, and business operations.

7.2 The confidentiality obligations in this section shall continue after termination of employment to the extent permitted by applicable law.

7.3 Confidential information shall not include information that becomes publicly available through no breach of this Agreement.

8. Intellectual Property

8.1 Subject to applicable law, work products created by the Employee in the course of employment and within the scope of assigned duties shall belong to the Employer.

8.2 The Employee shall reasonably cooperate with the Employer in documenting or protecting intellectual-property rights arising from such work.

9. Company Property and Security

9.1 The Employee shall take reasonable care of company equipment, accounts, credentials, documents, and other property entrusted to them.

9.2 Company property shall be returned promptly upon request and, in any event, upon termination of employment.

9.3 The Employee shall follow reasonable information-security procedures and shall not knowingly disclose access credentials to unauthorized persons.

10. Termination

10.1 Either party may terminate the employment relationship by giving the notice required by applicable law or this Agreement, whichever provides the greater protection required by law.

10.2 The Employer may terminate employment without notice where permitted by applicable law and where a legally recognized ground for immediate termination exists.

10.3 Upon termination, the Employee shall return company property and complete reasonable handover activities.

11. Non-Solicitation

11.1 During employment, the Employee shall not intentionally solicit the Employer's employees to leave their employment for a competing business, except as permitted by applicable law.

11.2 Nothing in this section shall prevent the Employee from exercising rights that cannot lawfully be restricted.

12. Personal Data

12.1 The Employer may process the Employee's personal data for legitimate employment, payroll, administrative, security, and legal-compliance purposes.

12.2 Such processing shall be carried out in accordance with applicable data-protection requirements.

13. Policies and Compliance

13.1 The Employee agrees to comply with reasonable workplace policies communicated by the Employer.

13.2 In the event of a conflict between an internal policy and a mandatory legal requirement, the mandatory legal requirement shall prevail.

14. Governing Law

14.1 This Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws applicable in Tunisia.

14.2 Any dispute arising from the employment relationship shall be handled by the competent authorities or courts as provided by applicable law.

15. Entire Agreement and Amendments

15.1 This Agreement represents the understanding between the parties concerning the matters expressly addressed herein.

15.2 Any amendment to this Agreement shall be made in writing and signed by the parties where required by law.

15.3 If any provision is found invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain effective to the extent permitted by law.
